CITY NEWS.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS.—Saturday Oct. 3.— Virginia Wilkinson and Sarah Smith, f. w. c. they profess to be from New York, and they with great indignity, took the whole amount; $200 each for six months. Wood and Price went their bail.

John F. Williams, charged with stealing a sack of wheat and horse from W. L. Kelly. Confined.

Jas. Divine, alias Charles Smith, picking the pocket of some one unknown. Some old gentleman was robbed in the marketplace.
Continued.

Ruben Dean, suspected fellow, giving various names at the various hotels. Discharged.

T. H. L. Goodwin, charged with stealing $130 from W. C. Mitchell. This man Goodwin was discharged on yesterday for this same offense, but now proof having been discovered, he was rearrested by order of the City Attorney. He was discharged for the second time, as there can be no case made against him.

One peace warrant was disposed of.

MAN'S MENAGERIE.—This grand exhibition of the splendors and novelties of zoology and ornithology will be opened to the public tomorrow on the corner of Walnut and East streets. The collection of wild beasts and birds is said to be the most complete in America, embracing rare specimens from every section of the globe. The famed trained elephants, Romeo and Juliet, will form a great feature in this exhibition, performing as they do a variety of really astonishing feats; such as balancing and posturing on pyramids, walking, standing on their heads, &c. The procession of cages will enter the city from Jeffersonville about 10 o'clock a. m., and pass through the principal thoroughfares, affording a free sight of the elephants and the men.
The latter animals were captured by Maj. Gen.
Curtis from the rebels in Arkansas, and are the last of the herd imported by the government for use in Texas in transporting army stores and mails. This menagerie will afford a very attractive amusement to our citizens during its short sojourn.

THE SEWING SCHOOL.—In connection with our City Mission has been reopened in the Mission room on Market street, between Seventh and Eighth, in the second story of the Relief Enginehouse; and the ladies who have been in the habit of teaching there, and any others who may feel disposed to engage in this good work, are requested to attend on next Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

Donations either of money or material are requested and will be thankfully received.
They can be left with our City Missionary, Rev. Mr. Ladd, or with Mr. Holliday, near the corner of Seventh and Jefferson, or at the school room on Market street, at 10 o'clock Saturday morning.

C. L. STANCLIFF.—We notice that this gentleman is announced as a candidate for Alderman in the Eighth ward, in place of R. P. Lightburn, resigned. The election will be held to-morrow, and it is highly important to the citizens of the ward to see that they return a member who is identified with the city's interests and progress. Such a man is Mr. Stancliff. Heretofore he has served in the same board, and subsequently held the office of Chief of Police in the city.
He is a master mechanic, an intelligent and thorough business man, and fully conversant with municipal affairs. The ward can send no better man.

MR. GILL. Superintendent of the Louisville and Frankfort railroad company, gives notice through our columns that on account of the Government having taken possession of the road for the purpose of widening the gauge, no more freight will be received. The passenger trains will also cease running after Wednesday or Thursday next, until the change of grade is made. This will be a great inconvenience to those residing along the line of the road who have daily business in the city.
It will seriously interrupt business generally, and we trust that the work may be speedily completed.

IN THE DEMOCRAT. Friday, we stated that a party of intoxicated soldiers had fired a back in the lower portion of the city. We have since learned that they also broke into a number of houses and destroyed the furniture, &c., and drove the inmates out. Eight of the party have been arrested, and are now confined in the barracks in irons. Their cases will be examined at an early day, and if the charges against them are proved to be true, they will receive the punishment which their outrageous conduct deserves.

A SUNDAY SCHOOL MEETING will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Walnut street Presbyterian Church.

The exercises, it is hoped, will prove of unusual interest. Addresses will be made by Rev. W. T. McElroy, Rev. B. W. Child-low, M. A. Warts, Esq., Secretary of the Sunday School Union, and others. It is currently desired that all friends of Missionary Societies will take part in the exercises.

ARRESTED AS A REBEL.—On yesterday, a man giving his name as Lieutenant Martin, of the rebel army, was arrested in our city by Lieutenant Loyd, charged with being a rebel spy.
He has been about our town for some time without the proper authority, and his actions being suspicious, he was arrested as above stated. He was placed in the barracks, where he will be kept until his case is examined.

JUNIOR CLARKSON. Son of J. M. Clarkson, met with a sudden death yesterday from jumping or falling off the train near Elizabethtown.
He ruptured a blood vessel and died in a few minutes after. His remains were brought to the city, and will be buried from his father's residence this afternoon.

SERVICES AT THE UNITARIAN CHURCH today at 11 a. m. and 7 1/2 p. m. In the evening discourse the pastor proposes to speak of his recent visit to Chattanooga.

Friends of the soldiers are cordially invited.

IT WILL BE SEEN BY REFERENCE to the advertising columns, that Patrick Dillon is announced as a candidate for Alderman in the Eighth ward, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of R. P. Lightburn.

ARRIVAL OF NEW TOBACCO.—The Delaware, which arrived from Henderson yesterday evening, brought up four hogheads of new tobacco, the first of the season. It is said to be a very superior article.

SOLDIERS' HOMES.—Religious services at the Soldiers' Home this evening at 4 o'clock. Soldiers and their friends are most cordially invited to attend.

THE BOARD OF SCHOOL TRUSTEES will meet to-morrow evening at the usual hour.

Thanks to Adams & Co's Express company for papers.

World's Fair, London, 1863.—The highest premium has been awarded to Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machines at the World's Fair, recently held in London, England, with all other sewing machines in competition.
This result was not unexpected, of course, but it is still highly complimentary to American genius, and a triumph more noteworthy compared to the public confidence in England.
This marked recognition of this machine not only adds to its prestige, confirming, as it does, the numerous awards here, but should satisfy the public that if any sewing is done Wheeler & Wilson's is the machine to do it.
